

8 Dine at Troika Sky Dining – the best fine dining experience money can buy.

One foot in and you'll feel like you've stepped into Tony Stark's bachelor pad. Troika Sky Dining on the 24th floor of The Troika is run by the talented men behind Frangipani and may be the most striking fine dining space in KL yet. Double-heighted glass panels look out to the Twin Towers and elegant mood lighting shadows every exquisite detail. The space is segregated into Cantaloupe (French restaurant), Strato (Italian restaurant) and Claret (wine bar). Enter in nonchalant strides and order the foie gras satay.
